Call for Paper

Digital Globe Pvt. Ltd. is going to publish the INVENTIVE Journal of Multi-Disciplinary Studies (Vol. 4) for July 2021. We request all the interested contributors to submit their manuscript before May 15, 2021. For this volume, we welcome those articles with more than one contributor (author).

The Digital Globe Pvt. Ltd welcomes articles on any disciplines. The paper should be well researched and documented, and clearly describe the methodology used; results should be presented based on sound facts, scientific procedures and well-founded arguments; be embedded in the relevant national or international debate; refer to the most recent academic literature on the issues discussed; be presented in a clearly structured and comprehensible manner. Authors are expected to submit articles in clear and concise English. British English spelling and punctuation are preferred. Articles should be written in the third person, impersonal style, and use of 'I/we' should be avoided. Please use double quotation marks, except where "a quotation is 'within' a quotation". Maximum length of paper should be 25,000 characters including spaces (not counting list of references). Manuscripts should be compiled in the following order: title page (including Acknowledgements as well as Funding and grant-awarding bodies); abstract; keywords; main text; references; appendices (as appropriate); table(s) with caption(s) (on individual pages); figure caption(s) (as a list). Abstracts should be 150-300 words (one paragraph only). Each manuscript should have 4 to 6 keywords. Section headings should be concise. Do not use footnotes; if explanatory notes are essential, refer to them in the text by superscripts 1, 2, 3, etc. The notes themselves should be gathered together at the end of the manuscript before the references section. All measurements should be in metric units (SI units), or state metric equivalents. All authors of a manuscript should include their full names, affiliations, postal addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses on the cover page of the manuscript. One author should be identified as the corresponding author. Authors must not embed equations or image files within their manuscript. Fonts - Times New Roman 12 point, use margins of at least 2.5 cm (1 inch), use bold for your article title with an initial capital letter for any proper noun. Give the names of all the authors with details of affiliation on the title page exactly as you wish them to appear in the published article. First order heading should be in bold, second level headings should be in bold italics, third level headings should be in italics, fourth level headings should also be italics at the beginning a paragraph. Figures, tables, and boxes must be referred to in the text, in numerical order. Equations must be numbered and placed directly in the text. After the References, list captions of figures in numerical order, followed by captions of tables in numerical order. The actual tables and figures should be supplied either at the end of the text or in a separate file. Ensure you have permission to use any figures you are reproducing from another source. Citation in the text and list of dereference should be in APA style. Please provide the highest quality figures format 1200 dpi for line art, 600 dpi for grey scale. Figures should be saved in separate file with caption. It should not be embedded in the manuscript. Size of figures: Width: from 56 mm to 175 mm; exceptionally, the width can be larger, but not beyond 190 mm and Height: maximum 213 mm.

The review criteria are whether the paper is a unique/important/useful contribution to the relevant national/international debate, whether it provides novel ideas/concepts/methods, whether it provides new applications of existing concepts and methods, and whether it provides a useful synthesis in its field.
